Anxiety Attack

Society is on the verge.

People are polarized. The news has lost credibility. Even the most powerful and trusted entities (government and corporations) are hanging on by a thread. One small tug and it's as if the whole thing could unravel. This loss of trust has spawned a new era of skepticism and a generation of cynics. Culture is experiencing an anxiety attack and consumers are looking for a way to cope.

Dr. TOBE will see you now.
